Cost of Advisory Services

An initial meeting to discuss your financial circumstances is free of charge. At this meeting Rob will establish how he can assist you and gather the information required to prepare a financial plan.

Rob will discuss the fee basis with you and agree on the method of charging prior to proceeding.

Payment will be either by way of a fee based on the funds under advice, complexity of the advice, from the brokerage paid by the product issuers, or as per invoiced. A fee for portfolio preparation or, if investment recommendations are not implemented, may also be charged.

Ongoing advice that includes financial and portfolio reviews may be charged on a percentage fee basis which varies according to the portfolio amount, complexity and structure, or as a fixed dollar amount as agreed between you and your adviser.

The basis for the fee for the SoA will be agreed upon with you before any advice is provided or costs incurred. All other fees are fully disclosed in the Statement of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement prior to any charges being incurred.

Insurance
Upfront commission	Up to 66%*
Ongoing commission	Up to 33%*
*% based on amount of premium and is paid by the insurance provider

All fees include 10% GST.

All fees are payable to Lifespan. Lifespan retains 9% and pays Wealth Dimensions 91%. Rob receives a salary and as a director/shareholder of Wealth Dimensions is entitled to a Director's drawing and/or dividend if and when paid.

Fee Examples:

Example for Superannuation or Investment Products

If you receive advice regarding superannuation or investment, the SoA fee could be $1,500, of which $135 is retained by Lifespan, $1,365 is paid to Wealth Dimensions. If you wished to participate in the ongoing advice program with the annual portfolio management & review fee at $3,500 per annum, $315 is retained by Lifespan, $3,185 is paid to Wealth Dimensions

Example for Risk Products

If you receive advice regarding insurance, the SoA fee could be $1,000 of which $90 is retained by Lifespan, $910 is paid to Wealth Dimensions. In certain scenarios this SoA fee can be waived.

If you take out a life insurance policy with an annual premium of $1,500, assuming the highest commission for the Upfront Option is selected at 66%, the upfront payment to Lifespan would be $990, of which $89 is retained by Lifespan, $901 is paid to Wealth Dimensions. The maximum ongoing commission for the Upfront Option is currently 22% per annum which could result in a payment of $330 per annum for as long as the policy remains in force, of which $29 is retained by Lifespan, $301 is paid to Wealth Dimensions. Where a level commission option is selected, it could be as much as 33%, or $495, of which $44 is retained by Lifespan, $451 is paid to Wealth Dimensions.

This commission has what is called a 'responsibility period' imposed by the risk product issuer. This means that if the policy is cancelled within the first 1-2 years of inception commission is returned to the product issuer by Lifespan.

Preparation of Statement of Advice (SoA) and Implementation (depending on type and complexity)	$0 to $7,500
Annual Portfolio Management & Review	$2,000 to $6,500
